

Proof of Child/Dependent 2023-2024

We have reviewed your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and find that we need additional information.

Your 2023-2024 financial aid application indicates that you have at least one dependent child. To claim the child/children as a legal dependent for financial aid purposes, you must currently be providing more than half of their support and continue to do so through June 30, 2024. Support includes housing, food, money, car, clothes, medical and dental care, daycare, insurance, etc. If the child does not live with you, you must still be able to document that you pay more than half of their support.

If you are unable to provide appropriate documentation demonstrating you provide more than half of the support for your child, please correct your FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov, under the Dependency Status Tab, the question “Do you have or will you have children who will receive more than half of their support from you” will need to be changed to “no” which will change your dependency status and you will be required to provide parent financial information on the FAFSA.

A determination of your dependency status will be made upon review of this form. This decision is final and is not appealable.
