3. Answer this question only if you answered "no" to questions 1 and 2.

Dependent or Ward of the Court/State is defined as the status of a child who is removed from the care, custody and control of parents and placed under care, custody and control of Juvenile Services. For federal student aid purposes, someone who is incarcerated is not considered a ward of the court. At any time since you turned 13, were you a dependent or ward of the court/state as defined above? No Yes

If you checked "no", your FAFSA will need to be corrected at www.fafsa.gov, under the Dependency Status Tab, and you will be considered a dependent student. This will require you to provide parental information, including financial, household size and number in college.

If you checked "yes", answer the following and provide the required documentation:

- a. How old were you when you were a ward of the court/state? _____
- b. List the dates you were a ward of the court/state (month/year) From _____ To _____ Documentation Required: Copy of the court document that specifically indicates you were placed under the care, custody and control of the court/state. It must include the reason for your placement, and the name of the facility.

None of the questions above pertain to me.

Your FAFSA will need to be corrected at www.fafsa.gov, under the Dependency Status Tab, and you will be considered a dependent student. This will require you to provide parental information, including financial, household size and number in college.
