

Brian and Deb Houkom

Scholarship Endowment

Brian and Deb Houkom believe education is critical for building a successful career. They felt a desire to support students and their former hometown community of Devils Lake.

Brian, chief executive officer of Western State Bank, and Deb established this endowment to provide scholarship support and reduce student debt for sophomores pursuing careers in business- or finance-related fields.