Proof of Child/Dependent 2021-2022

We have reviewed your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and find that we need additional information.

You indicated on your 2021-2022 FAFSA that you are under the age of 24 and that you have a child who will receive more than half of their support from you between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022 and your total family annual income is less than $16,910, which is the 2019 federal poverty income threshold. Your income does not appear to be sufficient enough to support you and your child/children for the 2021-2022 academic year or a calendar year. (Note: Having a child, paying child support or having someone live with you does not necessarily mean that you provide more than half of their support as required by the FAFSA.

If you are unable to provide appropriate documentation demonstrating you provide more than half of the support for your child, please correct your FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov, under the Dependency Status Tab, the question “Do you have or will you have children who will receive more than half of their support from you” will need to be changed to “no” which will change your dependency status and you will be required to provide parent financial information on the FAFSA.

A determination of your dependency status will be made upon review of this form. This decision is final and is not appealable.
